RAILROAD ASSURED

Construction of Wasiota and Black Mountain Railroad to Town of Harlan, Within One Year, Guaranteed.

Contract Between T. J. Asher, President of the Railroad, and Harlan Commercial Club, Signed.

At a call meeting of the Harlan Commercial Club held in the Court House on the night of Thursday, May 12th, the matter of completing subscription for railroad right-of-way from Poor Fork to the town of Harlan was taken up and discussed at length. Meeting with the Club was Thomas J. Asher, of Wasiota, Kentucky, President of the Wasiota and Black Mountain R. R. The Special Committee on Railroad Right-of-way reported that $3,950 had been secured by individual subscription, and that the sum of $550 was lacking to complete the $4,500 asked by the Railroad as a bonus for immediate construction.

After short discussion the Club, as a body, guaranteed the remaining $550 required, and the contract between the Railroad company and the Harlan Commercial Club was signed by Thomas J. Asher President of the Railroad Company and Messrs. J. E. Smith, J. B. Lewis, and M. D. Smith, Special Committee of the Commercial Club. The Railroad will follow the West bank of the Cumberland River from the mouth of Poor Fork, to and across the mouth of Martins Fork, and the right-of-way has been secured. Mr. J. T. Asher, President of the Wasiota and Black Mountain Railroad Company and Mr. J. E. Willingby, Chief Engineer of Construction, of the L. & N. R. R., were elected honorary members of the Harlan Commercial Club.

The prompt and efficient action taken by the Commercial Club at the last meeting has demonstrated beyond question, the value of this organization to the town and county of Harlan, as a channel through which business action can be speedily transacted. The Club is to be congratulated upon the prompt and effective manner in which it has handled this the first question of any magnitude, which has come before it. With the same spirit and energy continued.

Harlan is destined soon to feel the effects of this organization towards its prosperity and growth.

K. S. D. A. Annual Meeting
Louisville May 26, 27, 28.

That in union there is strength has certainly been demonstrated by the dentists of our good old Commonwealth. While in former years these State Associations did much good even tho' their members were few and mostly from the larger cities. Since the members from the smaller cities and towns, sometimes styled country dentists, have put their shoulder to the wheel, our State meetings have really assumed a national air; and dentists outside of our borders, feel complimented when offered a place on our programme, which this year is so full of the good new things that no man can afford to say "I'll not go to the meeting this year", for the other fellow is sure to go, and being able to give his patients that which is newest, best and most up-to-date is the one who deserves, and naturally will get, the most desirable patients.

BARTLESVILLE IS ALL LIFE

The Bartlesville Enterprise is enthusiastic as to that City's Present and Future.

[From the Bartlesville, Okla. Enterprise.]

Real estate men are unanimous in the opinion that 1910 will break all records of former years in the history of Bartlesville, Okla., in the real estate business. Just why they are of that opinion few of them can give a reason except the "woman's reason," just cause. It is in the air, that's what they all say. One thing is certain isn't all home folks who are doing the buying of town property in Bartlesville, neither is the demand for property confined to this town. Dewey, Romualdo, Oelata, Copan, every town and every part of the county is getting its share of the influx.

"People from outside the city are buying property," said one dealer the other day, and I am quite sure many of them are expecting to build homes here. I expect every builder will have all the work he can do this summer here. I am confident that this city will see many of the better class of homes built this year."

"Real estate began moving this year quite a bit ahead of the time it usually does," said another dealer. "This is regarded as an indication that this is to be a prosperous year. Now as the season is opening the increase in business has become more marked and there is greater reason to believe this is to be a record breaking year."

Real estate men say that the majority who are buying are doing so for homes. Many of the sales are of homes already built, the sellers turning right around and buying again. There is an increasing demand for vacant property upon which the buyers declare they intend to build.

In the city it is noticeable too, that here no one portion has any edge over the other in the matter of sales, the west side keeping pace with the other parts of the city.

Another pleasing thing worthy of note is the inquiries for farm land in this county. These inquiries come from all parts of the country, largely from the east and north.

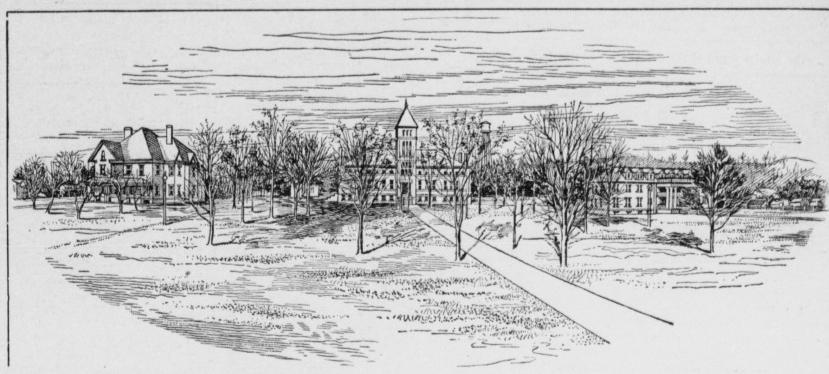

It is urged that home buildings more than anything else points to the solidity of a city and while it is essential that many business buildings be erected this is being done well, and the growth in the residence district is the natural outgrowth of the activity on the business streets of the city.

It is too early yet to give facts and figures regarding the proposed new buildings and improvements to be built in the business districts. A number of them are being planned to cost all the way from $10,000 to $50,000 each. Plans are being drawn and several of the architects are willing to assert that they are very busy with plans, but that the plans have not yet met with approval, or have not been submitted and therefore nothing definite is now known regarding the action.

Resolutions of Respect

It has been very truthfully said that "In the midst of life we are in death." That fact was exemplified when our beloved and worthy brother, Thomas Profit, suddenly and unexpectedly departed this life at Lexington, Ky. May 2nd 1910. Brother Profit, was a young man, and a member of North Jellico Lodge No. 320, I.O.O.F. Bertha, Ky. and always in attendance and dutiful when in reach of the Lodge.

And whereas the Supreme Ruler of Heaven and Earth has seen fit in His infinite wisdom and mercy to remove him from us, to the land beyond whence no traveler has ever returned. We nourish and cherish the memory of Brother Profit, in our beloved and fraternal order.

Be it resolved; First, that the aged father has lost a kind, loving and dutiful son earth loves Heaven gain.

And that the brothers and sisters a kind and loving brother, and the community a good and loyal citizen.

Resolved Second; That North Jellico Lodge No. 320, has lost a worthy, beloved and active member.

Third—Be it further Resolved; that we extend to the aged father, brothers and sisters, our aged heartfelt sympathy and command them in this time of trial and sorrow to the care of Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved; That the Chapter be draped in mourning, and the members wear the emblem of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved; That a page of the ledger minute book be dedicated to his memory, upon which these resolutions be passed.

Resolved; That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the father and family of the deceased brother, and a copy be sent to the Mountain Advocate, for publication.

Very Fraternally submitted,

All that is born must die.

COMMENCEMENT

Exercises of the Various Schools of Our City Will Occupy the Boards for Some Days.

This is the season of the year when the sweet girl graduate is in the zenith of her glory, and all decked in laces, frills and furbelows, she makes her debut and parades across the stage before the foot lights with as much dignity as did Halley's comet in its march between the earth and the sun this week.

The commencement exercises opened last Tuesday night at the Baptist Institute and continue for three days and nights in succession.

Next on the program is the City High School, which gives its commencement exercises tonight at Union College Chapel.

This will be followed next week by the commencement exercises of Union College, which will last until Thursday of next week.

Truly this is the season of sweet blossoms and roses and graduates and poems.

Death's Harvest

MRS. FANNIE JOHNSON.

Last Monday night May 16th at 10:30 o'clock Mrs. Fannie Johnson sank peacefully to rest after an illness covering a period of just two weeks.

Two weeks ago she was stricken at her gait and had to be assisted to the house, and physicians called. They pronounced it due to appoplexy and for several days her life was despaired of. She gradually grew better however and the family began to hope for the better. On Monday morning however she was suddenly taken worse and sank rapidly until relieved by death the same evening.

Mrs. Johnson was a Miss Black, a niece of Jno. A. and James D. Black of this city and was married to Mr. Dan Johnson almost 40 years ago, to this union were born 13 children 11 girls and 2 boys, 10 of whom are living as follows Mrs. J. F. Faulkner, of Berea, Mrs. Dr. Rankin, of Covington, Mrs. H. L. Pitman, of Wasiota, Mrs. W. R. Barber, of this city, Misses Mamie Johnson, of Pineville, Edwin, and Misses Elizabeth, Lalla, Olive and Gladys all at home.

The funeral service was conducted Wednesday afternoon at the late residence by Rev. C. K. Dickey assisted by Rev. West, Pastor of Southern Methodist Church, after which the remains were placed in the vault of John A. Black in the local cemetery.

The large gathering of friends and the many beautiful floral pieces showed the high esteem in which she was held.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the grief stricken family in the hour of sore affliction.

JOHN GRINDSTAFF.

Last Monday the last taps were sounded and Mr. John Grindstaff, one of the old soldiers of the Civil War responded the roll call on high war.

He has been in failing health for some months and his death was not unexpected by his family and friends.

Mr. Grindstaff was one of the most highly respected citizens of Knox county and was a successful farmer on the magnificent farm which he owned a few miles out on Fighting Creek road.

His death will cause a vacancy in that community that will be hard to fill.

The remains were interred in the family burying ground on the home place where he will await the summons when the dead shall be called forth and all shall stand before the Judgment throne of God.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to his widow who is left in the advanced years of her life with no one to look for comfort, (as there were no children born to this family,) although she had one daughter by a former marriage,

Mrs. Thos Henson who feels as near to him, perhaps as it would be possible for a child to feel, and they too share the sympathy of a wide circle of friends who mourns the loss of this excellent citizen. Kind neighbor and true friend.

Looking for the Comet

Wednesday morning a large crowd of citizens were gathered on the Public Square when the Advocate man appeared on the scene and began to inquire the cause of the attraction. We were informed that they were searching for the comet which was headed this way and expected to arrive at almost any minute.

Dr. Burnside seemed to be Commander-in-Chief and as we approached we saw something to the late in the muzzle of a ten pounder pointed in the direction the comet was supposed to be coming from, so we hesitated a moment to venture too near for fear we might get shot and would never know whether we were swept off the earth by the comet or not.

Catching the eye of the genial M. D. he bid us join them and explained that they were watching the approach of the comet. The instrument we had mistaken for a young cannon was only a piece of 2 inch gas pipe about 3 feet long with a piece of frosted glass attached to one end and the apparatus mounted upon a small Hall tree or tripod of some description while the viewers squinted in at the other end of the gas pipe.

We suspect that the jolly Dr. had provided a black spot on the glass to represent his majesty the comet, while the sprangles of frost in the stained glass served every purpose for a "tail" making the comet complete.

Many of the citizens were ready to declare that they saw the comet while some of the skeptical went a way in doubt.

It was suggested by some that those searching for the comet would soon be seeking relief from headache caused from looking at the sun, but Dr. Ben Herndon announced that he had just received full consignment of comet pills so that if any serious results followed the experiments of Dr. Burnside was prepared to care for all who came to him for treatment.

Dr. J. W. Parker took a squint but failed to announce what was his success while W. R. Black said he could not even see the sun.

Trials of a Lecturer.
A well known Englishwoman lecturer tells some stories at her own expense.

"I was," she says, "on a tour through the provinces and one night as I appeared on the platform in a small town I was asked to speak. I told the audience in the following way: You have heard of Mr. Gladstone, the Grand Old Man. Let me now introduce to you the grand old woman." This was intended as a sincere compliment.

"On another occasion a blur old woman who boasted of his ability to look on all sides of a question announced me as follows: 'This lady's come here to talk about her rights. She's hired the hall herself, and so she's got a right to be here, and if any of you don't like what she's got to say you've got an equal right to walk out in the middle of it.'"

Leaning Tower in England.
The famous leaning tower of Pisa has been repaired. The Temple tower is a square tower of early Gothic architecture. All its parts still preserve their normal relative positions without cracks or fissures. The tower, which is about 115 feet high, is five feet out of perpendicular at the summit. There are no records above whether the inclination was part of the architect's design or whether it is the result of an earthquake or of slow changes in the inclination of the soil. For many years there has been no change in the slope of the tower.

"Isn't young Bilkins going to wed that actress?"

"No; she feared that his laziness would bring poverty to both of them."

"And what did she do?"

"Cancelled the engagement, saying she had an aversion to a poorhouse."

Works of Art to be Shown at Exposition

Painters and Other Craftsmen of the South Invited to Display Work.

Lloyd Branson, an eminent artist of Knoxville, Tenn., who is chairman of the committee for the art exhibit at the Appalachian Exposition to be given in Knobville, September 12 to October 12, will be in search of pictures from prospective exhibitors, showing that much interest is being aroused, and that prospects are flattering for that feature of the exposition.

Following are some of the rules governing the exhibition:

First—"Art exhibit" means and include all paintings, sculpture, photograpy, carving, handicraft, etc.

Second—The collection to be displayed by each exhibitor is limited to ten selected and displayed as much and as soon and apart from other classes, the classes to be "A," "B" and "C."

Class A—To include all original pictures and sculpture, other than mechanical or chemical salts, in oil, pastel, water color, or black and white.

Class B—to be passed upon and hung by sub-committees, same to be appointed by the chairman, Lloyd Branson, which shall consist of painter or approved critics, with power to accept or reject any work or works offered. Class "A," to have two divisions, "Professional" and "Amateur."

Class C—To include all photographic pictures, ideal and portrait, plain and colored and halftone. Class C will be passed upon and hung by the photographers on committee, with the power to accept or reject all work or works offered, and furthermore, at the discretion of said photographic members of said committee.

Class "B" may be made into two divisions, "Professional" and "Amateur." Class C—To include all photographs, ideal or portrait, professional, and of every description, carvings, burn wood, flower work, corries, handcraft metal engravings and all work of artistic skill. Class "C" to be collected and displayed by the whole art committee, with the power to accept or reject all work or works offered for display.

Among other such rules as are contained in such an exhibit, it is well to call attention to the fact that all works of art other than loans, which are sought by the committee because of their especial and individual attractions and values, such as heirlooms, which the authorities wish to borrow, will be sent to the grounds at the close of the exhibition.

A sum of the railroads has been built right to the grounds and all shipments will be unloaded there.

No work of art which may be sold during the exhibition can be removed until after the close.

Those who are to serve on the committee, among them, Mr. Branson, chairman, are: Mrs. J. E. Lutz, Mrs. J. R. McDonald, Mrs. L. B. Andler, Miss Katherine Wiley, Mr. Joseph Knaffl, Mr. Robert Mason, James Brake, William McCoy, Melvin Thompson, Earle Harrison, Mrs. T. G. Garrett, Mr. Lloyd A. Freeman and Charles A. Krutch, all of Knoxville.

Flying Machines at Appalachian Exposition

Features and Amusement Features
Are Being Given Special Attention.

Drigible ballooning is one form of sport that has been practiced but little in the south, where the ordinary balloon ascension, with its attendant parachute leap, has lost all of its novelty, and now attracts but little attention. It will, however, have its innings at the Appalachian Exposition at Knobville, Tenn., Sept. 12 to Oct. 12, next, where it will form one of the features of the amusement program.

Flights by large gas-inflated balloons controlled by steering apparatus will be made from the exposition grounds over the city at a height not too great to be visible to the naked eye. The time of flights will be determined by atmospheric conditions, for the trips will be made when these are most favorable, if at night large search lights will be carried in the balloons. Flights by aviators in aeroplanes will be given, also for the first time in Tennessee with one exception.

On Chilhowee lake in the center of the exposition grounds special aquatic attractions will be seen. These will include exhibitions by motor boats, both sub-marine and surface, in which the government models will be exhibited. For those who enjoy the excitement there will be the latest devices for "shooting the chute," "making the dip" and "riding the ocean wave."

A "midway" will be there, on either side of which will be found shows, some instructive, others mirth-producing, but all of the greatest interest and most exciting type. There will be a fleet of the ships of the desert, roaring camels, that will provide their riders with all of the sensations of the storm-tossed mariner, barling seasickness, as they rise from and return to their knees during the process of embarking and disembarking the passengers. Varied sorts and conditions of entertainment will be furnished for the various classes of expositionists in this respect.

Pigeons and Pet Stock to Be Shown in Exhibit

First Show of Its Kind in the South
Will Be Held in Knoxville.

WHISTLING.
Negroes and boys may whistle in the street.—
The boys because they're void of better sense,
And Africa's sons because kind Providence
Has gifted them with pipes complete,
For oft they make music rather sweet.
Indeed, I listen with all sorts of pleasure
When they perform in harmony and measure,
And beat the time with swiftly moving feet.
And even men may whistle when they hear
A tale that's somewhat marvelous and tough.

In case like this it may be well enough
To make their incredulity appear absurd;

Yet when they whistle they're a mocking bird.

With their pipes out of tune and their music absurd.

Still I think most sensible men with me

That such whistling is a bore will heartily agree.

MAY.
Delightful is the month of May:
Rich tones of music sweet are ringing;
On orchard trees are tiny fruits,
And joyous birds are loudly singing.
Sweet-scented blossoms blithe and gay,
In their bloom in tufts quite slender,
Many greenish leaves in clusters fair,
Are lots of apples, small and tender.
Refreshing showers may often fall,
Earth is green, with verdure spreading,
And violets and hyacinths bloom of spring,
The song bird's voice seems mounting.

But gentle May must pass away,

Her fair days are few and fleeting,

For lovely June will soon be here,

And bring her flowers and sweet-scenting,

June, happy June will be here soon,

The warm weather begins to show it;

Eric long shall don his gorgon robe,

And the song birds seem to know it.

President Taft Is To Visit South In Fall

Head of His Nation Will Be Guest of the Appalachian Exposition for One Day.

President William H. Taft is planned to be the head of the delegation of the months of September and October. He has accepted the invitation of the Appalachian Exposition at Knobville, Tenn., to visit that great fair sometime between Sept. 12 and Oct. 12. He is the President's desire to be in Knoxville upon the opening of the exposition, but he will be unable to do so, in the event he is unable to get there then, he will surely visit the great southern show during the four weeks it is to continue.

President Taft is very much interested in the Appalachian Exposition, particularly on account of its scientific character, and the educational and conservational purposes of the Appalachian forest preserve and conservational project which is now being favored by high powers of the national government. The President regards East Tennessee and the Appalachian region certain to be the nucleus of the nation's timber and lumber industry, if it does not have it already, and that fact is to be considered in his action.
